

A musical Christmas

The night was filled with the sound of Christmas carols Friday night as members of St. Paul's Anglican parish travelled door to door spreading festive cheer. They are greeted here by Beulah Hewitt of North Water Street.

This issue of The Times sings as well with Christmas greetings from area merchants and residents. Our second section carries the best wishes of the season. Enjoy the holidays.

Resort operators back program

Meetings were held last week involving operators of both the resorts and restaurants to get their thoughts and views on the structure of the proposed new Hospitality Training Centre in the county.

It was generally felt by the members of the industry that a program that involved some training for themselves or their supervisors would greatly assist them in dealing with the "on the job experience" part of the program. Susan Horne, who is working on the design of the curriculum for the project was extremely pleased with the positive manner in which the operators were endorsing the program and said that this was imperative to the success of the project.

The goals of the training program were defined at the meetings as "a well trained workforce that are proud to offer a quality hospitality service to visitors and guests to the Haliburton Highlands and a recognition by all in the industry that each person plays a significant role (from waitress to manager) in attracting customers, serving them, satisfying them, and getting their return business."

Those in attendance acknowledged the need for training which deals with both technical skills (how to set a table, how to pour wine) and social skills (the ability to get along with others and to be a confident ambassador for the industry). There was also agreement that persons taking the training program should become well versed in the industry as a whole; it is expected that trainees will have a better understanding of the jobs of others and how they are interrelated.

Further discussions are planned for early January to outline in detail the training design and curriculum. Those businesses represented at the meetings were PineStone Inn, Chateau Woodland, Birch Point Lodge, Dixie Lee Chicken, Fireside Restaurant, Halimar Resort, Wagon Wheel Motel, Kosy Korner, Lakeview Motel, Wigamog Inn and Willow Beach Cottages.

Applications will be received by the office of the undersigned from those persons interested in serving on the Planning Committee for the Townships of Anson, Hindon & Minden.

This is a newly formed committee and details are available from the undersigned.

Committee changes

Dysart Reeve Murray Fearrey, Chairman of the Haliburton County Steering Committee, outlined the committees for 1983 at the county council meeting December 15 in Minden.

Fearrey told council the steering committee had made two changes in the committee system this year. The budget committee has had a minor name change to Management Committee. Fearrey told council that the budget committee is basically functioning as a management committee so the change means little in terms of role alteration.

Fearrey also announced the creation of a personnel committee designed to act as a negotiating body for employee contract discussions. Fearrey said this would provide continuity for the county and would enable the negotiators to maintain an arm's length distance.

The county economic development committee, a wing of the Chamber of Commerce, designed to attract business interests to locate in the area, will have some representative who sits on the Chamber of Commerce. The depressed economic situation in Canada appears to have put the development committee on a back burner.

Due to the large number of new members, Fearrey also announced the steering committee's decision to review the committees arrangements at the end of 1982 to ensure placing "the best people on the best committees for them."

The steering committee had to take into account the greater expenditures of the larger municipalities and hoped the other townships understood the obligation said Fearrey.

The steering committee report, outlining the committee membership, was accepted. The list included: Management: M. Fearrey, L. McKnight, K. Tallman. Finance: R. Duncan, J. Franklin, G. Lewis.

Correspondence: H. Clark, H. Davis, R. McCausland.

Hyland Crest

Hyland Crest Senior Citizen's Home has received a glowing report from the Haliburton Kawartha Pine Ridge District Health Unit said Hyland Crest Committee of management chairman Murray Fearrey.

The unit wrote in their report they are impressed with the obvious care and compassion with which the patients are treated. Hyland Crest staff is alert to all aspects of senior citizen care and the unit called the home "a well-run facility."

There were three minor recommendations made by the unit which are: the introduction of uniforms in the laundry room, directing employees handling clean laundry not to touch soiled laundry and that use of thermometers on food trays be started.

A Christmas gift

Christmas came a week early for Haliburton County this year. The gift that many area politicians had been waiting for for a long time arrived Thursday with the final reading of the Haliburton Act in the Ontario Legislation.

Those few who were able to attend the Thursday afternoon session described it as a proud moment for the county. Area MPP John Eakins took the time to introduce a number of county residents who had travelled to Toronto to witness the final readings and who were seated in the Speaker's gallery. He also read into the record the names of the members of County Council, both last term's and the new council, giving credit to the people who had helped bring Haliburton to full county status.

As the only provisional county, Haliburton occupied a unique position in the province. The passing of that singular nature may be viewed with some regret. However, it is also time this part of Ontario took its rightful place as a full-fledged county. The change should be welcomed by those both in and outside the county.

Editor:

I read with interest your articles in the past two issues of The Times, regarding the water levels in the Gull River and several of the lakes in the vicinity.

The first week I was almost tempted to write and suggest you had been led up the garden path by the Trent Valley authorities but after you were led up the second time I think it's about time a third view was thrown into the mess.

Granted everything printed was more or less true. We all know the water is high and we all know that excessive rain was the cause, over 8 inches in November, (if it had been snow we would have been wading around in 90 inches of the stuff), but the point is, why wasn't some action taken to control this excess water?

It was mentioned that a couple of logs were removed from dams farther south. What good is that going to do? Every stop log between here and Lake Ontario could be removed and it wouldn't have made any difference locally.

It was also mentioned that Horseshoe and Twelve Mile Lakes were high, true and they usually are well up as they are used as supply for the Orillia Water Light and Power generating station at Minden.

The object, as the average person would conclude, would be to control the source.

When you were talking to Bruce Kitchen, why didn't you ask him why they wouldn't, temporarily, put a few stop logs in the empty lakes farther north, above the Twelve Mile Boshkung chain?

If you had asked, as I did, you would have received some fantastic excuses and ridiculous answers. Perhaps you didn't want to get your readers riled up, just give them the mushroom treatment. The fact is, upper lakes such as Kushog, Hawk and Redstone were, and are, four to seven feet below full, dams were almost wide open with only one or two logs in each and seven to ten logs "in reserve" laying on top of the dam.

It would seem to me that if several logs in each of these water systems could have been dropped in for several weeks until the problem had passed, then removed, it would have at least controlled the mad rush of water at the time.

You took several pictures of the situation, why didn't you as suggested, go up and take a picture of those empty lakes. I did, thought they may be interesting later on. Last week it was stated the water was starting to recede, one would hope so, the rain had stopped, it certainly wasn't through anyone's efforts.

So what's the solution? Who knows? It appears, come Hell or high water Trent Canal authorities will do nothing. MNR will do nothing, they say it's a Canal System problem.

Would a County Conservation Authority, made up of local residents who would have knowledge, experience and backing to do something, be the answer? Maybe we should just turn the whole works over to the beavers. You can't reason with them either, but neither can you with TVCS.

Want my predictions for next spring? More to follow.

Phil Graham,
Minden.

Editor's Note: The following letter, addressed to Reeve Lyle McKnight, was presented for publication by the author.

Dear Reeve McKnight:

I think it is high time that someone in your municipality would have the sense and good judgement to take the proper precautions for the public when blocking off roadways and creating detours. I realize that road repairs are necessary, but creating hazardous conditions for the public is inexcusable as you have provided no warning lights whatsoever at this road repair site. (Main Street)

Last week I pulled into the Shell station to gas up from Highway 35 and when I left, I headed down the Bobcaygeon Road not knowing there was construction and that the road was closed since the detour sign at Highway 35 and Bobcaygeon Road is not visible from where I pulled out. The sign there was a "dwarf" at the best.

I left the gas station towards town and it was very dark. I was upon the large crane/back hoe before I knew it and fortunately I stopped just in time. All there was were three striped vertical board signs, unlighted, immediately adjacent to the equipment. No previous warning whatsoever.

If a private citizen or company acted irresponsibly like this, their knuckles would be rapped for sure.

Please clean up your act before someone gets seriously hurt or killed, and all because a town cannot do something properly. Let's not be so "Mickey Mouse" in our actions especially when it comes to the safety of our own streets and citizens as well as putting a bad taste in the mouths of tourists who visit our Highlands and who use our shops.

This isn't the first example of our lacklustre attitude towards how we do things in this community and I realize also that we are not alone. But please, let's act a little more responsibly before the township finds itself with a lawsuit for gross negligence and for which the taxpayer still foots the bill.

William Redgrave,
Minden.

Haliburton Act passes

Thursday afternoon the important second reading of the Act, changing the status of Haliburton to a full county was presented in the Ontario Legislature. Victoria-Haliburton MP John Eakins spoke when the bill was introduced. His remarks, as recorded in Hansard, are outlined below.

The Times learned late Tuesday afternoon that third and final reading of the bill had taken place at approximately 4 p.m. and that Royal Assent was expected to be granted before the Legislature adjourned for the Christmas recess, sometime Tuesday evening.

ORDERS OF THE DAY

COUNTY OF HALIBURTON ACT

Mr. Rotenberg moved, on behalf of Hon. Mr. Bennett, second reading of Bill 191, An Act to provide for the continuation of the Provisional County of Haliburton as the County of Haliburton.

Mr. Rotenberg: This bill will appeal the present Haliburton Act and make Haliburton a full county for municipal purposes that has been requested by the council of the provisional county of Haliburton. Haliburton has always been called a provisional county and it is the last provisional county in the province of Ontario because it forms part of the county of Victoria for judicial purposes. Since the administration of justice is now a provincial responsibility and since Haliburton has now the same municipal responsibilities of any other county, it seems appropriate and desirable to give it full county status.

The proposed legislation also makes complementary amendments to the Territorial Division Act to provide that Haliburton and Victoria will continue to be united for judicial purposes and to recognize the new township of Sherbourne, McClintock, Livingstone, Lawrence and Nightingale. This bill represents an important step forward for Haliburton. I wish to extend my sincere thanks and the thanks of our ministry to the members and staff of all of the councils in Haliburton, some of whom are with us here today, for their assistance and co-operation in the development of this bill. Mr. Speaker, I commend this bill to the House.

Mr. Eakins: As the member of the Legislature representing the counties of Victoria and Haliburton; I am pleased and indeed honoured, to express my full support and the support of my colleagues for Bill 191, to provide for the continuation of the Provisional County of Haliburton as the County of Haliburton. At the outset, I want to pay tribute to the people of Haliburton County and in particular to the Warden, past and present, the elected reeves and deputy reeves, the municipal councillors, the county clerk, Mrs. Win Lahay, the county engineer, Mr. Bill Obee, and other staff for their many months of work in preparing background information so that all might be well-informed in making application to the Legislature for this bill.

As mentioned, this legislation changes the status of Haliburton from a provisional county to a full county and repeals the present Haliburton Act which was originally enacted in 1874. Over the years, many people have asked as to what was meant by the term "provisional".

In 1874, enthusiastic residents of the area wanted to have the railway extended into Haliburton to open up the country. There was no authority to float a debenture unless under county status. There was insufficient population to meet the usual criteria. As a result, the Haliburton Act was passed whereby the provisional county of Haliburton was established and affiliated with Victoria county for judicial purposes.

This is an important day in the history of Haliburton County. Perhaps we might call it unique, for after almost 109 years, this county, being the only one with a provisional title, will also assume in name the status of county of Haliburton. To mark this event today, it is appropriate and much appreciated to have seated in the Speaker's gallery officials representing the great county of Haliburton. I would like to introduce them and have them stand for the record of the House. I want to recognize the immediate past warden, now reeve of Lutterworth township, Mr. Ron Gambell; Mrs. Jane Franklin, deputy reeve of Glamorgan township; Mrs. Win Lahay, county clerk-treasurer; Mr. Bill Obee, the county engineer.

Today we are debating the second reading of the Haliburton Act, known as Bill 191. It is interesting to note that as reported in the Ontario newspaper Hansard, a second reading took place in the Legislature to establish Haliburton as a provisional county on the approximate date of March 18, 1874. It is of further interest that the Haliburton motion was put at that time by the Hon. Oliver Mowat, later Sir Oliver Mowat, who was at that time the Premier and Attorney General.

An Hon. Member: He was a Liberal, was he not?

Mr. Eakins: He was a Liberal premier. It reads, "Provisional County: Hon. Mr. Mowat moved the second reading of the bill to incorporate the municipality of Haliburton and to provide for its becoming a provisional county. He explained that the reasons for erecting the municipality into a separate district was assistance from a county town and the consequent difficulty in administering justice. The bill was read a second time."

Premier Mowat's interest in Haliburton county and its future development did not end with his legislative duty. On August 5, 1874, he attended the turning of the first sod at Lindsay to officially indicate that the building of the railway to Haliburton was under way. It is also of interest to note today that the Toronto Globe of May 28, 1874, reported that the vote to establish a provisional county and decide to which municipality they would be united for judicial purposes resulted in 396 people voting for a new county. There were four opposed and an unanimous vote was given to be united to Victoria for judicial purposes.

Today, the parliamentary assistant has outlined what this new act means in terms of change. The discussions leading to this day have been ongoing for some time. The initial credit for this move must go to Reeve Fearrey of Dysart et al and a former warden. I want to read some of the background briefly. Soon after Reeve Fearrey became warden of the provisional county of Haliburton in 1981, he promoted the proposal that the provisional status should be examined. In July, a resolution was passed authorizing the warden and a committee of three, in conjunction with the ministry, to institute a study and then report to the county council. After a preliminary review with staff from the ministry of the implications of being a provisional county, the facts were reported to the 10 municipalities for discussion.

The challenge was continued under the 1982 wardenship of Ron Gambell, reeve of Lutterworth Township, and a formal resolution as to county council at the February 17, 1982 meeting confirmed the desire to proceed with the removal of provisional, subject to county council at the February 17, 1982 meeting confirmed the desire to proceed with the removal of provisional, subject to the full information on all matters concerned.

The Minister of Municipal Affairs and Housing (Mr. Bennett) replied on March 5 that the ministry staff would undertake a study of all consequences. Mr. Ted Foster, the senior policy adviser in the Ministry of Municipal Affairs and Housing was assigned to assist Haliburton county and is to be congratulated on his thorough investigations.

On August 5, county council passed a resolution at a special meeting petitioning the Minister of Municipal Affairs and Housing to introduce a County of Haliburton Act erecting Haliburton to full county status. One of the changes involved during the proposed changes was the erection of the Improvement District of Bicroft to township status, effective December 1, 1982 and at the inaugural meeting of county council this past Tuesday evening, December 14, the township of Bicroft's first reeve, William G. Howe, was elected warden of the county of Haliburton for the year 1983.

Foreign interests eye farmland

- by John Eakins, M.P.P. -

According to a Ministry of Agriculture report, more than 57,000 acres of Ontario farmland have been bought by or on behalf of foreigners in the last two years. Liberal Agriculture Critic Jack Riddell, who has been urging the government to take action on this question for some years, says the increased foreign ownership will lead to deterioration of rural communities, making farmers "feudal tenants". However, the Minister does not believe that foreign ownership is a serious problem and has no plans for legislation to control it.

Injured workers

Ontario's injured workers will get a 9 per cent increase in benefits under a Ministry of Labour proposal which has the support of all three parties. Changes are retroactive to July and would raise the minimum permanent disability pension to $748 a month from $686.

Liberal Leader David Peterson would have supported an even higher increase but will move quickly to get the pay raise through. Other changes include a new rate of $537 for a dependent spouse's pension, $149 for a dependent child, and a burial allowance to a widow or widower of $1,200.

The ceiling on covered earnings will rise to $24,200. Some 70,000 Ontario workers are on full disability pensions.

Pension reform

As David Peterson has frequently pointed out,

Ontario has refused to make a commitment on the child-rearing drop-out provision for pensions. Changes in the Canada Pension Plan require the support of two thirds of the provinces with two thirds of the population. This effectively gives Ontario the power of veto. The Premier has now indicated that Ontario is sympathetic to allowing women to leave the labour force temporarily to raise children without losing pension benefits. He has also stated that the provinces might be able to agree to certain pension reforms soon rather than waiting up to two years for studies by Ottawa.

Domestic abuse

An all-party legislative committee has recommended that the police lay charges in cases of wife-beating and that the province help finance a network of halfway houses for women attempting to escape violence at home.

There are some 50,000 battered wives in Metro Toronto alone, and the committee believes that wife battering "must be treated as a crime - too many persons, both in positions of authority and in society at large, tacitly approve of wife battering by treating it lightly."

Currently, the burden of laying charges is upon the victim, which the committee considers "unfair and ineffective". Emergency shelters "are an absolutely essential element in protecting assaulted women from further violence".

The Haliburton County Snowmobile Association now have up-to-date trail maps available. They are printed on durable, heavy paper. The maps will be provided to members free of charge and extra copies may be purchased at $1.00 each. They are also provided in the kits that go with a 7 day temporary membership for $10.00. Any visitor to the area wishing to ride the H.C.S.A. trails will have to purchase at least a 7 day membership if they are not members of an "Alliance" club at home.

The H.C.S.A. also advises us that the Trail Wardens will not enforce this membership rule during Snowarama on February 5. Out of respect for the very worthy cause that Snowarama represents they have agreed to welcome all participants onto the trail system without any charges.

Since the snowmobile clubs now must rely solely on memberships for their funds we sincerely hope that everyone will approach this new "user-pay" philosophy in a co-operative spirit.

Letters bring response

As we said in last week's column we have been contacting several media sources to ask for better coverage for the Haliburton Highlands. The immediate result was last week's radio interview on C.B.C. Ontario Morning to talk about our county ski facilities. We didn't have time to cover the entire lot since once we put together a list we found that we have 206 km of trails presently being groomed and open to the public, another 49 km which are for the exclusive use of the guests of the resort that owns them, and another 115 km of trails presently being developed. This totals 370 km of trails being offered by 18 different businesses, clubs or government agencies. We talked about as many as we could get in along with a rundown on the new facilities at Sir Sam's Ski Area. With the addition of their second chair lift and the "T" bar and pony lift, we expect the reputation for no line ups at the lifts at Sir Sam's can be continued. Watch for our newsletter coming out shortly for more details about ski facilities in the county.

Further responses from our letters have now been received from both the Toronto Star and CHAY-FM. Star travel editor George Bryant called to let us know that he had passed along the materials we had mailed him to freelance writer Walter Skol with a request that he contact us to consider a story on winter for next year. CHAY's Bob Bowland called and we discussed a number of ways we might be able to improve our communications. For starters a copy of this column will be mailed to him each Monday when it is prepared so that they can scan it for useful news items. We also discussed setting up some telephone interviews on items that would be of interest to their listeners.

The weather reports we prepare are being considered along with the coming events segment.

We are impressed that there is a willingness to communicate and we will be striving to make it happen. As always, however, we need your co-operation to keep us well-informed on the events and happenings that you are planning. Keep us "tuned in" by calling 286-1760 and we will do our best to spread the word.

Season's Greetings

The Holiday Season is upon us and with it the winter tourist season commences. Accommodation throughout the county is booked solid between Christmas and New Year and most reports are that the balance of the season is shaping up well also. Each year more facilities are becoming available year-round and this trend should continue and help bring more economic stability to our area.

On behalf of the staff and the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce, we wish all the readers a very happy and bountiful Christmas and we hope that the New Year will bring prosperity to all of you. We also want to say thank you for your support over the year just past. We will continue to do our best to deserve it.

Pioneer celebrates her 97th

Eleanor Walker, a longtime resident of Haliburton County celebrated her 97th birthday on December 15 at Hyland Crest.

Mrs. Walker was born in Beaverton in 1885, the daughter of carpenter Jeremiah Taylor. She moved with her parents, two brothers and two sisters to the county and settled at Mountain Lake.

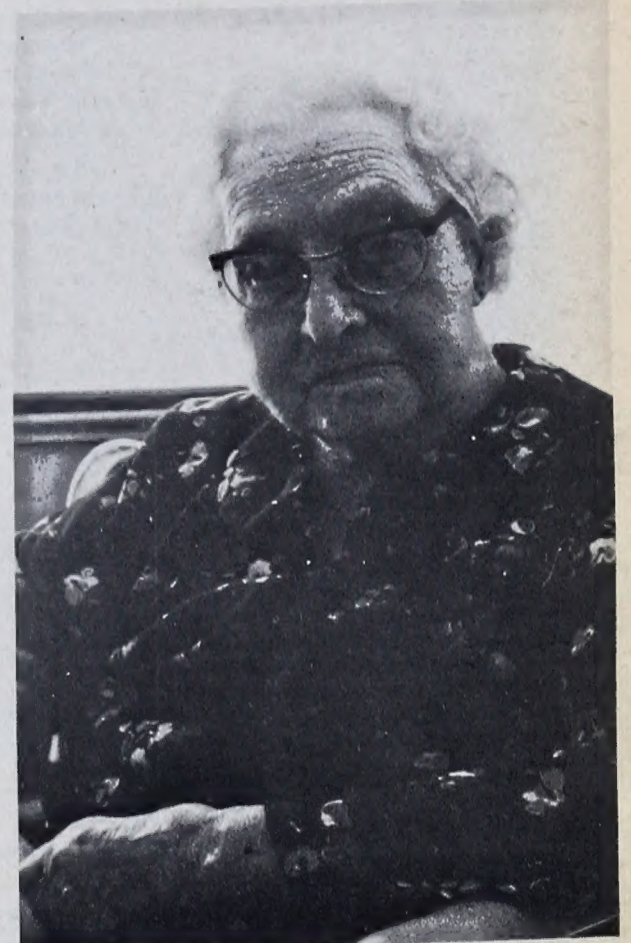

Mrs. Walker later worked on the D and C ship lines which served the Great Lakes area. There she met her husband Bryon Walker of Flint, Michigan. They settled on Mountain Lake as Mrs. Walker's family did before them and opened the Mountain Lake Inn, now known as the Ogoogo Lodge. The couple sold the inn and moved to Minden where they opened the store now owned by Liz and Henry Alrutz on the corner of highways 121 and 35. At that time the Walkers had a sign proclaiming "We doze but never close."

Many other landmarks around Minden owe their existence to the Walkers. The building now known as the Fireside was built by the couple. The Beaver theatre was also erected by the Walkers.

In the late 1940's Mrs. Walker retired and rented cottages on the site across from the Fireside. She stayed at this business until she was 85, often making quilts to distribute among less fortunate families.

Mrs. Walker has one daughter, Diane Stevens, three grandchildren, Bryon Stevens, deceased, Linda McKnight and Lewis Stevens, six great grandchildren and two great great grandchildren.

Elinor Walker, 97 on Wednesday.

Parking request

Vehicles parked on roadways throughout the County always pose a problem, but never is this problem more acute than in the two weeks surrounding Christmas and New Years.

It is unfortunate that, each year, police are required to tow vehicles from the cottage roadways, because they pose a hazard to other vehicles, or because they hinder the removal of snow.

Haliburton is a beautiful place to spend the Holidays and with a little advance planning and consideration can be a time of rest and relaxation without trouble nor hardship for anyone.

To all visitors and seasonal residents - please, park your vehicles off the roadways. Either clear the snow from your usual summer parking spot or share with your neighbours the cost of having a community area cleared of snow for parking of all your vehicles.

Did you know?

The Victoria - Haliburton Lung Association makes literature on all respiratory diseases available to the general public. Included are pamphlets on air pollution, smoking, asthma, emphysema, pneumonia, etc.

The Haliburton County Information and Referral Centre has these leaflets in stock, free for the asking. Come in and pick up a copy! The office is located in the Drag River Municipal Building in Haliburton.

Recently, the Lung Association developed an excellent device for people with breathing difficulties. A cold-weather mask which can be used for short periods of time. To go from home to car for example, or from car to store. The masks are available, free of charge at the Haliburton Home Support Services, Drag River Municipal Building, Haliburton. outdoors

by Ron Reid - Federation of Ontario Naturalists

It's Christmas time once again, and in parking lots across the nation row upon row of fresh-cut Christmas trees lie in wait for Christmas shoppers. Despite the inroads of tinsel-and-plastic artificial trees, natural evergreens at $20 and up are still the most popular centrepiece for Christmas celebrations.

If you select a natural tree, don't feel guilty about despoiling the natural environment, since almost all Christmas trees are now grown commercially. However, you can also make Christmas an occasion to help improve the environment, with a little thought. As a small beginning, leaving your discarded Christmas tree beside your bird feeder for the winter can provide welcome shelter for your chickadees and nuthatches.

Some naturalists also decorate a second tree, preferably a live one in their yard, to share Christmas with the birds. Chains of popcorn and peanuts, suet balls stuffed with seeds, pieces of stale cake and cookies, and caches of sunflower seeds poked into the branches and crevices can all provide a feast on a cold Christmas morn.

You might also want to consider a live Christmas tree, that can be planted after the festive season. Of necessity, live trees are usually smaller, since the potted roots are heavy. A small white pine is usually cheaper and easier to handle than the traditional spruce. When the potted tree is brought inside, it should be watered well, but make sure that the pot has drainage holes so that the roots are not damaged by constant saturation.

Hot, dry houses are very hard on live trees, so try to keep your tree in a cool spot and mist it frequently. If you are careful, a tree can be kept indoors for several weeks without damage, but five to seven days is a better rule of thumb. After Christmas, plant the tree in a hole you prepared before freeze-up. Baking your new tree with snow over the roots will likely also help to protect it from frost damage.

In the rural and northern areas of Ontario, cutting your own Christmas tree is an annual family tradition. Balsam fir or cedar are a better choice than spruce in this case, since they hold their needles more tightly. One friend annually scouts the surrounding woods for a wind-thrown fir, so that he can harvest the top six feet or so. He ends up with a dense, cone-laden Christmas tree, without having to rob the forest of any of its living resources.

Township offers local airport

Stanhope Deputy Reeve Elgin Stouffer informed Haliburton county council his township would not be averse to relinquishing Stanhope Airport to better facilitate airport upgrading. He suggested such a change would encourage more airborne tourism. The county council meeting December 15 was the forum for the offer.

Stouffer revealed that in a discussion with Ministry of Transport and Communications (MTC) representative Jim Scott, Scott "suggested money is available" in a manner comparable to the system used for roads. The ministry pays 80% of the cost and the municipality is responsible for the balance. The provincial government would probably be encouraged to give more funds to a county application than one coming from the township.

Stouffer said there are 12 main highways providing access to the county, but the airport facilities are not extensive and the train service has been halted.

Stanhope airport is licenced and currently has about $200,000 to $300,000 invested in the facility. It straddles the boundary line between Stanhope and Guilford townships.

Christmas driving

'Twas the night before Christmas
And all through the town
People were happy
Not a face wore a frown

And out on the street
Not a driver'd been drinking
It seems they'd all
Been doing some thinking

To drink and to drive
On this day or any
Would endanger their lives
Indeed that of many

So they walked, took a cab
Or just stayed at home
And Christmas morning arrived
With no children alone.

New House rules introduced

-by Bill Scott, M.P. -

In the past couple of weeks there have been two significant events in the life of Parliament and Canadians. Both of these events were reported in the media, but I believe their importance has not yet been felt and probably will not be until the new year. I will discuss the first in this column and tackle the effects of Bill C-139, An Act to amend the Statute Law relating to Income Tax, next time.

The first event was the tabling of the final report of the Special Committee on Standing Orders and Procedures. Their task was to examine the existing rules of the House of Commons and recommend permanent or temporary changes designed to streamline the legislative process and give the Members more opportunity to participate directly in the formulation of legislation.

The Committee held twenty-five meetings from June 29 through to November. It recommended several experimental changes to be brought in on a trial basis for one year. By unanimous consent, on November 29, it was agreed that these trial changes will go into effect for a period of one year commencing December 22, 1982.

Under these changes, Parliament will have three fixed sitting periods. The winter semester will begin on the fourth Monday following the end of the fall semester. This is expected to be January 17, 1983. The House will adjourn for the Easter recess on the Wednesday preceding Good Friday. The spring semester will begin on the Monday following Easter Monday. The summer recess will begin on June 30 or on the preceding Friday if June 30 falls on a Saturday or a Sunday. The fall semester will start on the first Monday following Labour Day. It will adjourn for one week on the Friday preceding November 11 and continue until the Wednesday preceding Christmas Day.

The daily timetable of the House is amended so that sittings begin at 11:00 a.m. excepting Wednesday and adjourn at 6:00 p.m. Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday and 5:00 p.m. on Friday. No evening sessions will be held. This time will be reserved for committee work. No recorded votes will take place on Friday.

Speeches will be limited to 20 minutes with an additional 10 minutes following for questions or comments to the Member who has just spoken. Standing Order 43 which allowed for making a motion of urgent and pressing necessity has been deleted. In its place, a new Standing Order 17A will allow any Member to make a one and one half minute statement. Several changes have been made to the technical procedures such as the new rule which demands that before adjourning the House due to a lack of quorum, the Speaker must direct that the House be counted. If fewer than 20 Members are present the bells must be rung for fifteen minutes after which time a count must be taken. If fewer than twenty are then present the names of those present must be recorded and the House adjourned.

As a former Assistant Deputy Chairman of Committees of the Whole House, I look forward to this trial period. I think the all-party committee did an excellent job in their proposals. Any reforms which can increase the efficiency of Parliament are welcome. It remains to be seen how they will work in this present format, but I am optimistic at this point.

Huskies drop three more

The Haliburton Huskies had another lost weekend, dropping a heavy schedule of three games in three days. The team failed to give interim coach Tim Wood a win but did provide a good effort Sunday afternoon in the Dysart arena.

The Huskies started the weekend with a 15 - 1 loss during a visit to Penetang. The only Huskie to score was Mike Rae from Glen Evans in the first period. The period was fairly even with the under-strength Huskies keeping pace for the majority of the time.

The Huskies were finished in the second period when Penetang scored four unanswered goals and effectively signalled the beginning of the end.

The last period mangled the Huskies and had Haliburton goaltender Duane Lennie scrambling in frustration. No fewer than eight goals eluded the goalie and buried the Huskies in a 15 - 1 loss.

Penetang boasted three hat-trick scorers in Blair McReynolds, Greg St. Amant and Dave Robillard.

Haliburton managed to lower the goals against in the next game played. In Haliburton they faced the Midland Centennials. The Centennials racked up an 8 - 2 win.

The scoring started before the first minute was out. The Centennials' John Walter scored after the 35 seconds mark. However, the Huskies came back less than a minute later on a goal by Trent McElwain. He was assisted by Kevin Shapiera and Scott Mitchell.

Walter of the Centennials again scored, potting the first of three Midland powerplay goals at 9:19 of the period. Walter's linemate, Ken Mugford fired in the next goal at :47 of the second period. The Huskies replied at 10:35 making it a 3-2 game on a Kevin Shapiera goal. Butch Manary and Glen Evans assisted.

The Centennials then proceeded to bury the Huskies in the last 10 minutes of the middle period. Mugford put another one past Colin Newell at 12:36. Brian Cadeau hit the mark on his first powerplay goal of the evening at 14:52 and Paul Hahj rounded out second period scoring at 16:51, making it 6 - 2.

Kevin Shapiera sewed up the game for the Centennials in the third period. He picked up a penalty at 1:45 of the period, then at 4:34 started a fight which gave him two minors, a five minute penalty for starting the battle and a game misconduct with its accompanying minor penalty. The Huskie defense rose miraculously to the challenge and held the Centennials off for seven shorthanded minutes before Midland scored. Cadeau picked up his second of the night at 13:25. The visitors finished off the game with a goal at 19:41 by Shawn Davy, resulting in an 8 - 2 final.

The Huskies progressed from Friday's 15 - 1 game to wind up the weekend on Sunday 4 - 2 against Bracebridge Bears.

The Huskies had the benefit of the kid line consisting of two midgets, Kelly Mitchell (8) and Mike McNaull (11) and juvenile Ivan Ingram (7).

The three played hard, fast hockey with lots of clean hitting and superior forechecking. They buzzed around the Bracebridge net the majority of the time they were on the ice but unfortunately ran into a lucky goaltender. Mitchell and McNaull did manage to pick up an assist each during the afternoon. The three played the best hockey of any line on both teams.

Bracebridge took command of the game in the first period. They received goals from Rennie Bakema, Dan Hemslaw and the winner from Mike Crawford. Crawford's goal was a shorthanded effort, the result of Duane Lennie's attempt to clear the puck by travelling far out of his crease. A series of miscues ended up with Lennie hopelessly sprawling and Crawford easily flipping the puck in the net.

Rob Abbs fired another one of his accurate point shots while the kid line harassed Bracebridge power play defenders. During that period Ivan Ingram fanned on a beautiful set-up by Mike McNaull at which fans sent up an audible groan.

Bracebridge locked up the game in the third period when Ian Brown scored making it a 4 - 1 hockey game. Kevin Shapiera set up Mike Rae on a power play and the Huskies made it 4 - 2.

Despite feverish attempts by the Huskies to evenup the score, Bracebridge managed to hold on, although looking a little dazed.

The Minden and Haliburton Atoms fought to a 1 - 1 tie Friday evening in Haliburton. Robie Ackerblade was the marksman for the Minden team.

Back in Minden Saturday afternoon, the Atoms were defeated by the visiting Huntsville squad. The final score was 4 - 1. Kent Taylor spoiled the visitors shut-out, connecting on a pass from Joey Boyle.

Randy Bull turned in another good effort in goal for Minden. Coach Dave Dollo commended the players for holding the score to 2 - 1 until the final minutes of the game when Huntsville picked up two fast goals to take the win.

AN ASSOCIATED GOSPEL CHURCH

Bitter irony in release

After a long and tiresome battle Andrew Shapiera has finally been granted an outright release by a two man Ontario Hockey Association (OHA) tribunal last week.

The hockey player is stymied by the player trading situation between the Minden Juveniles and the Haliburton Huskies.

Shapiera had applied at the beginning of the season for a waiver to play more competitive Junior C hockey with the Huskies. The waiver is generally assumed to be a matter of formality, but the Minden Minor Hockey Association decided to reverse the frequent granting of waivers to maintain juvenile competitiveness.

Shapiera and his parents tried to sway the association's decision but the MMHA would not reverse their ruling. He applied for and was granted a tribunal hearing and according to Shapiera, after only half an hour's deliberation, his outright release was granted and his $150 deposit fee refunded.

Shapiera stated he specifically asked the members of the tribunal if he would be compelled to sign the Minden juvenile card, which is a prerequisite for the player affiliation system the Monarchs have established with the Huskies. However, Shapiera said the Minden executive insists he sign.

"I think I'll play somewhere else next year, rather than go through the hassles of playing locally," Shapiera said. He suggested Bracebridge or Orillia as possible alternatives.

by Bert Harrison

Saturday afternoon the Highland Cross Road singers came to Hyland Crest, and the way they entertained us, we were surely blessed. They not only sang so beautifully, and did some different skits. No matter what they did for us we loved it, every bit.

Sorry to miss church service here Sunday night. We went to Carnarvon Sunday School concert which we thought was only right. For twenty four years, Carnarvon was our home, so back to Carnarvon, we always have to roam.

Our head nurse Melinda

Wood, has been away on a holiday. The nurses have behaved quite well, while she has been away.

Mrs. Walters had a Christmas dinner this week with her daughter-in-law and daughter.

Mrs. Ida Schell fell, and hurt her arm. Glad she didn't do any more harm.

Linda showed us three movies Monday night. "Olden Days" was the first title, then "Fuzzy Duffy", then "Gaston's Recital".

Tuesday morning Rev. Wicks of the Minden Gospel Church here took the service in the chapel here. He spoke on "For unto us is born this day, a Saviour who is Christ the Lord", a message we hold dear. Our girls came to sing and play. We thank them all for coming this December day.

We would like to thank all who are responsible for decorating here so lovely.

Payne and Deacon came to entertain us Tuesday night. The music they played suited us just right.

Wednesday afternoon, the folks from Alsaw Pentecostal church came here to entertain. They sang so lovely, we hope they come again.

Linda English, along with her spouse, in Gelert town have bought a new house.

Thursday morning down in the gym Millie Wood won knocking down the pins.

The Senior Ladies of the Minden Curling Club came in this Thursday afternoon, with real grub. They not only brought it in, but served it up so nice. A finer lot of ladies never curled on ice.

Edith Welch, down at the Wagon Wheel, won a lovely dinner for playing progressive euchre. She was the winner.

Our administrator is getting around now, with the help of a cane. He says his ankle isn't causing nearly so much pain.

Thursday night is bingo night here at Hyland Crest. Doug Ripley came last night, and was sure our special guest. We thank the members of the Kinsman Club for coming each week in nineteen-eighty-two. A merry Christmas and a happy New Year is what we wish for you. On behalf of the residents of Hyland Crest, I want to say a big thank you to those people who come each week, and give us of their best.

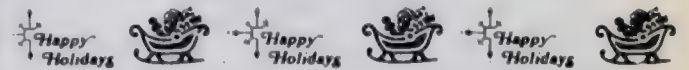

Grace Coburn, Fred Ballard, Norma Barron, their talents with us are sharing. Norma or Fred play the organ music, Grace leads the singing - she always has some humorous poems, and her singing is so grand. We're sure some day, they will entertain in that promised land.

The members of the Minden Gospel Church came here on Friday night to entertain us so graciously, and did the job just right. They played and sang Christmas carols, and read the Christmas story. Marjorie Johnson led in prayer. We were surprised to see so many here. Three selections play and sang by Ray Johnson and his wife Chris. This was something you wouldn't want to miss. Then the Young People gave us a Christmas card and bookmark "Silent Night". The way they entertained us was a real delight.

To all our readers, and those you hold dear, a real "Merry Christmas" and a "Happy New Year".

kinmount klippings

With the Christmas holidays fast approaching and Christmas Day getting closer, new faces are appearing at T.J.'s.

First we are happy to welcome Mr. and Mrs. Don Wilkinson and son Shaun to Kinmount. They have set up home at Davis Lake, with Shaun attending Fenelon Falls Secondary School. He is fast becoming one of the regular faces in town.

Other new faces just passing through town from Thunder Bay were an aunt and uncle to Ron Haugen, on their way to Ron's parents' 40th wedding anniversary in Fenelon Falls. Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Haugen.

Back in town from the wild west is Paul Silvers, now a man of leisure having suffered from the dreaded lay-off bug, biting us all.

On the sick list this week is Stacey Robillard, just home from the hospital recovering from a nasty bout of bronchitis, get well soon Stacey!

On the subject of moving, our own Milly and Bill Moss have just completed a round trip to their house on the river and back to the old homestead for winter. I'm told they plan to do it again in '83.

Birthdays and anniversaries are popping up like inflation, so it's congratulations on their birthdays to Bonnie Mullock (nee Crego) December 16 and Blair Crego, 2 years old on December 21. Sue Ellen Crego celebrated her third birthday this past Sunday. Just so as not to be out of it, Luther and Luanne Crego celebrate year 1 completed as man and wife.

Heads down and study time is here again in school with the Christmas exams. Go to it you guys, these exams are important. Hope you all do well!

Kinmount hockey team slipped up on Saturday's game in Minden. Coboconk, yes Cobie did it to them 2-6. Way to go guys.

Our team also played in Minden, December 17 against Lindsay and tied 4 all. Kinmount scorers were Dennis Stata, Wally Stender and John Dettman.

Congratulations to Jim & Cindy Hill on their second wedding anniversary December 15, 1982.

The "Kinmount Brownies" entertained at the Hyland Crest Nursing Home in Minden this Saturday night.

T.J.'s and family would like to take this opportunity to wish one and all a very merry Christmas and a prosperous New Year.

Well, snow is falling and the scent of snowmobile fuel is hitting the air. So drive carefully and enjoy yourselves.

Keep the news coming!

On Thursday, December 16th, the 8th Grade band from Archie Stouffer School, consisting of 31 players, journeyed to Cardiff School and put on a concert for the whole school, the concert consisted of the whole band, solos, duets, and ensembles, after which the group came back to Haliburton and enjoyed a delicious lunch at Dixie Lee. The group performed for the Victoria St. School up above the Dysart Arena and played the same concert. The School's Principal, Mrs. Gorrie, supplied soda for the performers and they all returned to Minden in time to meet the school buses at 3:30 p.m. These talented youngsters, under the direction of Mr. Carter, performed for the annual Christmas Concert on Monday, December 20.

On Sunday, December 19, the private students of Melissa Stephens from Minden and Haliburton, consisting of piano and instrumentalists performed at Wig-A-Mog to a more than capacity audience. Melissa is a very gifted musician and teacher, having received her training at Western University. The program was enthusiastically received, after which refreshments were served. Melissa's students number 55.

Dad is home after his bout in Toronto General Hospital

(everyone was very kind to him) and we enjoyed a delicious repast at the Fireside Restaurant on Sunday.

I am sorry to report that Mrs. Minaker from Gelert passed away last week. Our deepest sympathy to her family and friends.

Please don't forget the free movies for children to be shown in the Common Room of the Minden Cultural Centre on Thursday, December 23rd from 1:30 to 2:30 p.m. They will also have the opportunity to view the art work done by the children of the Archie Stouffer School here in Minden.

There will be a Christmas Eve service celebrated on Friday, December 24th at 7:30 p.m. at St. Paul's Anglican Church which will be a family communion service and a solemn High Eucharist of Christmas at 11:00 p.m.

On Christmas Day, December 25th, there will be a Christmas Communion service conducted at St. Peter's in Maple Lake at 10:00 a.m.

A pre-Christmas party was held at the home of the Elmer Harrisons of Maple Lake over the weekend. Guests attending were her sons Mr. and Mrs. Doug Walker, Mr. Roger Walker, and friend Haliburton County Public Library staff conducted a Workshop at the Haliburton office on Wednesday, December 15th and turned in their reports after this they enjoyed a delicious luncheon at the PineStone Inn.

If I were asked who are the greatest male writers of this century, I would have to say Ernest Hemingway, Thomas Thompson and Irving Stone, not necessarily in that order. In order to interpret Hemingway, you must understand the man behind the author. His stories not only deal with tales but the psychological beings he wrote about. He was not objective about his subjects, they lived in his mind and every character was as complex as he was. He hated weakness and yet his own weakness destroyed him. However, this did not prevent him from being a giant in his art. Whenever I feel down or discouraged, I take out one of "Papa" Hemingway's books, which is now, to me like meeting an old friend. It is akin to the feeling I have for Beethoven, another titan, one of the greatest composers, musicians of all time. I ne three B's, Bach, Brahms and Beethoven, three giants in the world of music.

There are some things which cannot be learned quickly, and time which is all we have, must be paid heavily for their acquiring. They are the very simplest things and because it takes a man's life to know them. The little new that each man gets from life is very costly and the only heritage he has to leave.

Death in the Afternoon,
Ernest Hemingway

Additional fine writers would be Chaim Potok, James Michener, Morris West and Joseph Conrad. All of these men made a tremendous contribution to the world of literature.

Vera McDonald won three turkeys at the Minden Turkey Bingo. Our congratulations to her.

Turn on your heartlight
Let it shine wherever you go.
Let it make a happy glow
For all the world to see.
Gonna take a ride across the moon
You and Me!

From E.T.

Merry, Merry Christmas to you all. May it be the best Christmas ever, and God Bless us everyone.

Minden W.I.

The Minden Women's Institute held their Christmas Party at the United Church hall on the afternoon of December 15. Mrs. L. Cox (President) opened the meeting by reading a verse and welcomed us all. The roll call of Christmas verses was answered by 18 members and 3 guests were made welcome, one of these was the familiar face of Vera Cowen.

A card with good wishes was read from District President Mrs. Stan Stewart and a thank you note from the Lahay's. One report had 14 cards sent since the last meeting and collections for the card fund and pennies for friendship were taken. Business being concluded the meeting closed after announcement was made of January 19 as date of next meeting at 2 at the Parish hall.

Following this several carols were sung with Mrs. M. Bunker at the piano. Mrs. Cox and Mrs. Sears gave out exchange gifts and those from Secret Pals.

A bountiful table was now ready and all enjoyed the delicious food and a social half hour followed.

Best wishes of the season and a happy and prosperous New Year to all from Minden W.I.

Jeanne Sears, P.R.O.

Hi kids!
Here is my Christmas card to you. I hope you get all you want under the tree and have a very happy day.
God bless you on this Christmas Day,
With happiness supreme.
And may you gather all the gifts
Of which you ever dream.
May all your friends remember you
With sentiment sincere,
To add a world of pleasure and
To multiply your cheer.
God bless you with the courage to Pursue each noble quest.
And grant this golden Yule will be
By far your happiest.
May all the ornaments and lights
Upon the Christmas tree.
Reflect the peace and comfort of
Your loving family.
May every moment of your life
Seem wonderful and new
And in the year a week away
May all your dreams come true.

James J. Metcalfe

Why does a bear wear a fur coat?
A: Because he would look ridiculous in a raincoat.
What goes up and down stairs without moving?
A: A carpet.
Why is a clock the dirtiest thing in the house?
A: Because it has hands but doesn't wash his face.
How do you know the difference between a sheep and a goat?
A: By looking at them.
What did one angel say to the other angel?
A: Halo there.
Why do dragons sleep during the day?
A: So they can fight knights.
Bye for now. Take it easy.
God bless till next time.

Christmas greetings to all. Just trust in Our Lord Jesus and you will see, What a difference it will turn out to be.

I am sure it will work for you, you'll see! For He sure has worked miracles out for me. If we trust, we do not worry. If we worry we do not trust. So just trust in the Lord with all your soul and heart. Don't worry, for he is one who will never part. Then someday, you'll be able to say, The Lord is helping me, in the very same way.
